NEW SERIES NEWS!

Look out! Missy, played by Michelle Gomez, will appear in the first two-part adventure called The Magician's Apprentice and The Witch's Familiar.

When we last saw Missy it looked like she'd been blasted by a Cyberman – but now it looks like she got away!

"Things have been a little beige since I left Missy behind, so I'm delighted to be putting my lippie back on," said Michelle. "I'm positively dying to see the Doctor again!"

TARDIS WINNER!

Read about the day a TARDIS arrived at a reader's school!

Last year, we held a competition to win a life-size TARDIS for your school.
Reader Oliver Foot, who is eight, is the lucky winner.

We went to Oliver's school to drop off his fantastic prize and met him and his classmates, who could hardly believe their eyes.
Oliver had kept the news of his prize secret for a whole month!

It's a perfect replica of the Doctor's amazing time machine. Although, sadly, it isn't bigger on the inside,
it's a brilliant prize to win!

The TARDIS looks like it has landed in the playground!

DID YOU KNOW?

The police box is a disguise
for the Doctor's TARDIS.

There were 688 police boxes like this on the streets of London in 1953!

If you were in trouble, you could use the telephone to call the police station.

WELL, I NEVER KNEW THAT!

K-9 FACTS

Find out all about the Doctor's faithful friend...

The name K-9 sounds like canine, which means dog!

WHO IS HE?

K-9 is a clever robot dog. He's an old friend of the Doctor's and he used to travel in the TARDIS. There have been several models - one version was blown up while helping the Doctor out! The Doctor has built new models several times.

LIFE ON EARTH

One version of K-9 was given to Sarah Jane Smith as a present. She loved her robot dog and he helped her on many adventures. One day he stopped working but, luckily, the Doctor was able to fix him.

The Doctor repairs his old friend!

DID YOU KNOW?

K-9 enjoyed playing chess against the Doctor, especially when he won!

The Doctor comes face-to-face with his old enemy the Master, who calls herself Missy. She is leading a Cyber invasion of Earth!

Dream Crabs are a race of terrifying aliens called the Kantrofarri. These blue creatures keep their victims happy and relaxed in a dream world while dissolving their brains. Yuck!

DON'T GET TRAPPED!

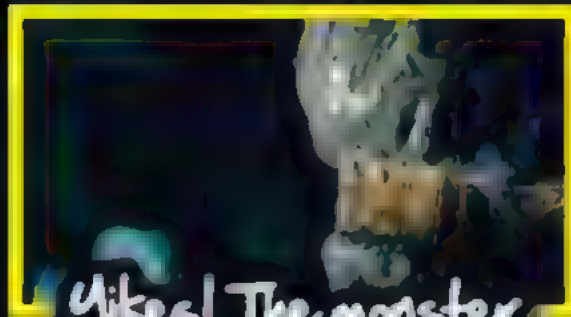

Dream Crabs can end up on your face inside a dream, too... and that means you can end up trapped inside two or more dreams. It can all get a bit dreamy-weamy! And it will make your head hurt if you think about it.

Seriously hot work

RECYCLED SUIT

Peter Capaldi wore the same space suit that David Tennant used in several of his adventures. The crew piped cold water through tubes in the back to keep him cool but Peter was more worried about any hair gel left in the helmet by the earlier Doctor!

You can't see the sun, but it was beating down 40 degree heat on the cast and crew!

Eight-legged horrors!

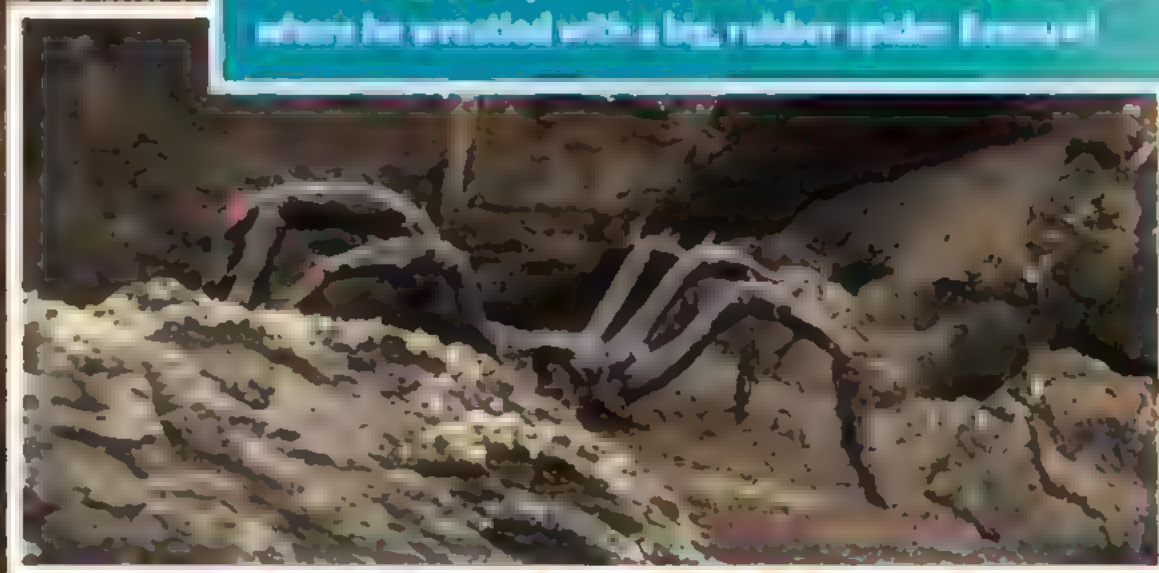

Space umbrella!

SPIDEY SENSE!

Anyone afraid of spiders who was working on this episode had to get over their fear pretty quickly. The giant creepy crawlies came to life using a combination of CGI and models. Peter Capaldi had to film a scene in Lanzarote where he wrestled with a big rubber spider. Bravely!

Brushing away any footprints

DID YOU KNOW?

Doctor Who filmed a story called Planet of Fire on Lanzarote in 1984. The rocky landscape was used for the planet Sarn.
